Adair County Health System Announces New Chief Financial Officer

Adair County Health System (ACHS) is pleased to announce Kevin Heinzeroth as the Chief Financial Officer. Heinzeroth began his new position on December 12, 2011. He comes to ACHS with years of experience with a BS from Iowa State University and a BA from University of Northern Iowa. Kevin began his business career right after graduation from Iowa State University, he farmed 400 acres along with farrow to finish operation of around 2000 head of hogs a year. He returned to school and after graduation from Northern Iowa he worked as an auditor at Wellmark Blue Cross Blue Shield and Denman and Company L.L.P. He then went to work for the state of Iowa Communications Network where he started as Accounting Manager before spending the last five year as the Chief Financial Officer.

Heinzeroth came to Adair County Health System to back into the health care and to get back into a rural community, as he grew up in a small town in Northeast Iowa. His family includes his wife Patricia and four step children, Zeke, Kelly, Jacque and Jarrad.

Heinzeroth quoted, “The entire ACHS staff has been very helpful as I transition into the position. I have been very impressed with the facilities as well as the professionalism of the entire Health System staff. They have made me feel very welcome.”
