Adair County Home Care receives top performing award.

Greenfield, Iowa – Adair County Home Care is pleased to announce that they have been named to the 2011 HomeCare Elite, a compilation of the top-performing home health agencies in the United States. Now in its sixth year, the HomeCare Elite identifies the top 25 percent of agencies and further highlights the top 100 and top 500 agencies overall. Winners are ranked by an analysis of performance measures in quality outcomes, process of care measures, and financial performance.

“It is increasingly challenging to manage the cost/quality equation. The 2011 HomeCare Elite winners demonstrate a commitment to providing patients with the best possible care while managing their business efficiently and effectively,” said Amanda Twiss, CEO of OCS and My InnerView. “This year, we updated our methodology to reflect industry focus and, based on this rigorous analysis, we congratulate Adair County Home Care on being one of the top home care agencies in the country.”

Adair County Home Care credits their dedicated staff and available resources with the company’s ability to rank as one of the HomeCare elite. “The Adair County Home Care staff is committed to providing quality care to the citizens of Adair County while respecting available resources,” state Jane Ernst, Director of Adair County Home Care. “We are honored to have been one of the twenty three agencies in Iowa.”

The 2011 HomeCare Elite is the only performance recognition of its kind in the home health industry. The 2011 HomeCare Elite is brought to the industry by OCS HomeCare, the leading provider of homecare information, and DecisionHealth, publisher of the industry’s most respected independent newsletter. The data used for this analysis were compiled from publicly available information. The entire list of the 2011 HomeCare Elite agencies can be viewed by visiting the OCS HomeCare website at www.ocshomecare.com.
