

EMT PRN Job Description

ACHS has an opening for a PRN EMT to work in our EMS department. This is a great opportunity to serve our communities while working with highly skilled EMT, Paramedic and Nursing staff in our emergency room and on EMS calls. Our team is committed to providing high level care, with compassion and would love to have you join them!

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Assist paramedics and nursing in ER.
- Maintain proper knowledge and skills to operate within the Scope of Practice per level of certification utilized for optimum patient care.
- Performs and initial and outgoing subjective and objective assessment of patient with complex healthcare needs in the pre-hospital and hospital environment which is reflected in comprehensive documentation on run reports.
- Prioritizes patients' needs and develops a plan of care.
- Maintains professionalism within acute services using Behavioral Standards.
- Follows safety and risk policies.
- Implements and/or continues patient care as indicated by patient assessment following Adair County Ambulance Protocols and/or medical direction in the pre-hospital and hospital environment. Documents response to treatment.
- Reassesses and evaluates patients' conditions and implemented care as indicated by patient assessment following the Adair County Ambulance Protocols and/or medical direction, in the pre-hospital and hospital environment. Documents response to treatment.
- Safely able to operate an ambulance in accordance with Iowa law. Demonstrate geographic knowledge of the service area and street locations.
- Actively participates in evaluating, promoting and ensuring safety in and around the ambulance.
- Communicates effectively and interacts professionally in daily contacts.
- May be asked to assist outside ER and ambulance such as cardiac rehab, specialty clinics etc.
- Checks and maintains medical equipment, IV solutions and supplies necessary for safe operations and patient care.
- Performs follow-up on patients transported, providing written and verbal progress reports to the referring agency/physician.
- Supervises and offers direction to students and other pre-hospital personnel who participate on a patient transport.
- Remains knowledgeable of ambulance radio functions, usage and operation.
- Follows Quality Assurance and Improvement Plan and activities.

EDUCATIONAL/EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

- Chauffeur's license.
- State of Iowa Certified Emergency Medical Technician.
- BCLS Provider.
- Strong assessment and prioritization skills.
- Ability to function in a fast-paced, dynamic environment.
- Excellent interpersonal skills required.
- Must be insurable in the State of Iowa.