

Radiology Technologist

This position is currently eligible for a $7,500.00 sign-on bonus! Adair County Health System has an opening for a technologist on our day shift, 36 hours per week, 1 night per week of call and 1 weekend a month. In this position, you will work with a highly skilled radiology team to independently performs radiographic procedures with a high degree of technical skill and professionalism.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Uses proper technique and positioning to obtain satisfactory radiology examinations.
- Set up and adjusts radiation protection shielding for patients and personnel as required for maximum protection.
- Assumes responsibility for processing and sending digital images.
- Assumes responsibility for proper and efficient operation of equipment used and reports malfunctions or need for repairs to Director or designee.
- Is responsible to maintain a clean and well-stocked radiology area
- Is responsible for computer order entry.
- Assists radiologists and physicians in administration of radio opaque material and surgical procedures involving radiographs and/or fluoro.
- Performs quality exams with portable x-ray machine.
- Instruct patients on proper preparation for radiological, ultrasound, CT, MRI or Nuclear Med exams.
- Maintains records in a correct and orderly manner as set by the Departmental guidelines.
- Transports inpatient and outpatients to the Radiology Department.

EDUCATIONAL/EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

- High School graduate or GED required.
- Completion of ACR approved training program in radiographic technology.
- ARRT certified or arrangements in progress to take boards.
- Current Iowa "Permit to Practice."
- BLS Certification